Bon Coeur Fine Wine Broking List Terms and Conditions

Orders of wines from the Bon Coeur Fine Wine Broking List constitute an offer to purchase and are therefore subject to the seller's acceptance of the offer, which will be confirmed by Bon Coeur to the buyer in writing.

All prices mentioned are in GBP Sterling.

The Duty Paid price shown is excluding VAT, and therefore will be subject to VAT on purchase. The In Bond price is subject to both UK excise Duty and VAT upon their release from bond. Delivery charges will also be applied, which will include insurance cover for the wine to the required delivery address (UK residential or another warehouse). Delivery unless otherwise agreed will take place only after receipt of payment.

Upon receipt of an order, Bon Coeur will contact the buyer in order to confirm and arrange the transaction. In the event that prices quoted are no longer current, Bon Coeur withholds the right to alter the price accordingly and offer the buyer the opportunity to accept the new price or withdraw their offer to purchase. There are no credit facilities available for the Bon Coeur Fine Wine Broking list and payment of wines is due in full upon invoicing unless otherwise agreed.

All wines sold by Bon Coeur will be sold in their reported condition, upon delivery of wines all responsibility for the care and condition passes to the buyer. All Broking Fine Wines may be collected from Moor Park, subject to a pre-arrangement of a collection time with Bon Coeur. If Bon Coeur Fine Wines is commissioned to store purchased wines, then In Bond or Duty Paid storage charges will apply at the standard Bon Coeur tariffs. If you are not familiar with the status of In Bond and Duty Paid wines, please contact us and we will be more than happy to explain in further detail
